

CucumberStudio

#1 Collaboration platform for BDD

Deliver Quality at the Speed of Modern Business

Enable frictionless collaboration

Bridge the gap between business and technical stakeholders by defining acceptance criteria using a shared business terminology.

Implement Agile Test Management

Give all stakeholders visibility into testing activity and results with analytics built for modern agile organizations.

Unlock your single source of truth

Seamless Git integration means your BDD documentation is always up to date.

It's like nitro in your engine! It is full of clear and flexible features to ease agile developments. We have been using [CucumberStudio] in several ways (automation, manual testing...), and it always fulfills our needs.
