Trello enterprise campaign

“Why we did it”

$5M

What would you do with five million dollars?

Perhaps, run a Super Bowl campaign?

What are your goals? 🎯

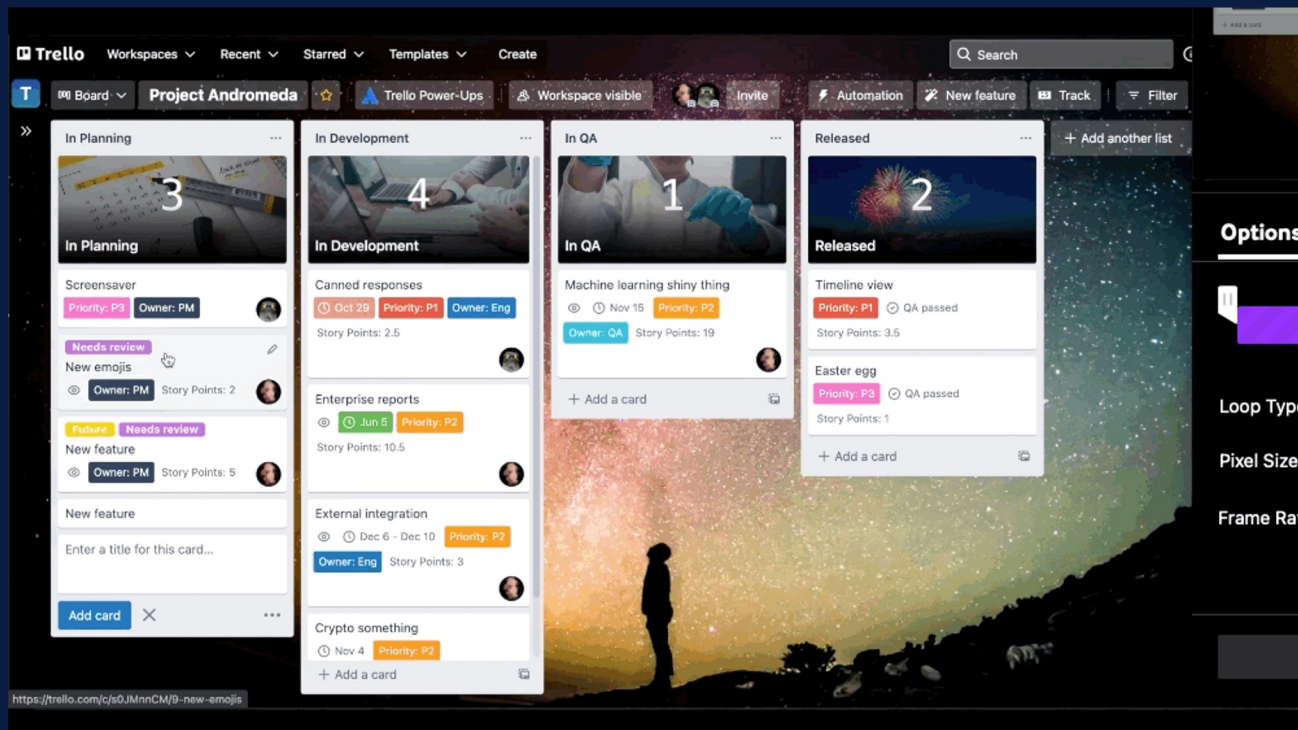

Shift brand perception

Shift perception amongst enterprises to recognition that Trello is enterprise-grade

Drive demand generation

Accelerate Trello Enterprise's 30% ARR growth goals for FY22; drive quality leads and pipe for EAs

Trello brings all your tasks, teammates, and tools together.

OUR MISSION

We believe behind every great human achievement, there is a team.
Our mission is to unleash the potential in every team.

Using $5 million, drive the message to show that Trello is enterprise-grade.

Current state

Trello is a beloved tool that has had mass awareness for years, even prior to remote work.

Challenge

Not all teams see Trello as an enterprise solution for their business – even if they're already using it.

Opportunity

Reintroduce Trello as an enterprise-grade tool to change perception of how Trello works in large organizations.

Reasons to believe (value prop)

Trello is:

- scalable
- secure
- flexible
- integrated
- human

Cool. But how do you start coordinating between:

30+ different stakeholders

with 80+ programs to launch across 3 different regions?

Then finally, we launched!

With the power of Atlassian products, we...

Built 150+ new programs

Videos, ebooks, whitepapers, one-pagers, blogs, landing pages, emails, paid ads across US and EMEA.

New assets to build from

As the WM landscape continues to change, we now have a Trello board of content to lean on and be agile.

Closed 250+ tickets

We created, updated, and closed over 250 Jira and Atlas tickets from start to finish in the campaign.

Surpassed targets

We consistently exceeded marketing influenced pipeline and MQLs 💰

Key learnings

“What we learned”

Before

- New team members
- First multimillion dollar campaign
- One quarter to create and launch

After

- 150+ new programs launched
- Pipeline goals consistently surpassed
- Doubled ROI

What we wish we knew (that we know now)

Timing

Consolidate timelines and planning docs early.

Efficiency

Improve tracking & meetings/stand-ups

Segmentation

Goals may shift.
Flexibility is key.

Operational bugs

Teamwork is irreplaceable.
